MONTPELIER

University of Vermont football team in town on way to Northfield.

The University of Vermont football squad, accompanied by Coach Leary, arrived in the city this morning and had signal practice before leaving on the noon train for Northfield, where they meet Norwich university on Howard field this afternoon. Vermont is the favorite in the betting on the strength of the two eleven's showing against New Hampshire college. Norwich met defeat at Durham, N. H., 14 to 6 and Vermont triumphed, 13 to 9.

A political argument became so heated last evening between two local partisans that Officer McAvoy was called upon to separate the belligerent parties before they came to blows. One of the debaters was escorted to the police station until his anger subsided, but no arrests were made.

Supreme court declared a recess yesterday afternoon until Tuesday forenoon, arguments being completed in the case of Paul Desmarcher vs. Stephen N. Frost, Franklin county. Two candidates of the four who passed the bar examinations were admitted to practice yesterday, Chief Justice Loveland Munson administering the oath to Oliver Hugh Cameron of St. Johnsbury and James Patrick Leamy of West Rutland. The other two, Joseph G. Frattini of Montpelier and Harrison S. Thayer of Morrisville, will be admitted at the January and April terms, respectively, their periods of study not expiring until that time. The class was unusually small this year, in former years there being eight or ten.

A daughter was born the first of the week to Mr. and Mrs. Adeloid Lemay of Town Hill and a daughter was born Nov. 7 to Mr. and Mrs. Ricardo Cantola of 288 Barre street.

Julius Wilcox returned this forenoon from Ludlow, where he made a brief visit with relatives.

Mrs. Roy E. Bigelow went last evening to Claremont, N. H., where she will make a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Wheatley left this forenoon for Boston, where they will spend a week.

WEBSTERVILLE.

There will be a joint meeting of all Socialist locals in the town of Barre Monday evening, Nov. 13, in Websterville, in the basement of the Baptist church, for the transaction of very important business.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The Tourist club will meet with Mrs. F. E. Robinson Monday.

W. Ryder of Randolph was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

White chinchilla remnants suitable for children's coats. Little Dry Goods Store, Cottage street.

John B. Exams, who has been seriously ill during the past week, is steadily convalescing.

Mrs. G. B. Evans of Waterbury was among the business visitors and shoppers in the city yesterday.

David Bowles of the east hill, who has been dangerously ill for several days, is reported to be about the same.

Mrs. Harry Bingham and Miss Dorothy Griffith of Waterbury were among the visitors in the city yesterday.

Mrs. W. C. Robins left yesterday for Concord, N. H., where she is making a visit of several days with relatives.

Charles Byron of Lynn, Mass., returned to his home yesterday after passing the past three days in the city on business.

Leslie Melver, a student at the University of Vermont, arrived in the city last night and will spend the week end at his home in Granville.

William Chamberlain, who has been visiting friends in the city for several days returned to his home in Waverly, Mass., yesterday afternoon.

The condition of James Walker of upper Washington street, who has been quite seriously ill for the past two weeks, continues to improve slowly.

James Sullivan, a stonecutter of Milford, N. H., arrived in Barre last night and will commence work in one of the North Barre stonehills next week.

Mrs. William Wales of Worcester, Mass., arrived in the city yesterday, called here by the sickness and death of her father, Levi Keith of Eastern avenue.

Miss Pearl Taylor, who has been employed as a clerk in the F. W. Woolworth store, completes her duties there to-night and will leave for her home in Walden Monday.

Angelo Rizzi, who has been employed as a stonecutter in Concord, N. H., during the past few years arrived in the city last night and will commence work in a Barre stonehill within a few days.

Algot Knutson, who has been employed for several months in the office of the Vermont Marble Co. at Brattleboro, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Knutson of South Main street.

Homer Fitts and Francis Wells were in Burlington on business yesterday. Harold Fitts and A. Partch, who are attending the University of Vermont, accompanied them home to spend the week end recess.

The Ministers' Monday club will meet at the Congregational church, Barre, on Monday at 10:30 a. m. A paper will be read by Rev. Frank Blomfield of Berlin on "The Minister's Use of the Bible in the Sermon."

William McCaffrey of Elm street, who has been employed for some time as a clerk in the Drown pharmacy, completed his duties to-day, and will leave to-morrow for his home in Boston, there to pass the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gove of Eastern avenue left for Worcester, Mass., yesterday, where they were called by the illness of their son, George H. Gove, who will submit to an operation for appendicitis to-morrow.

Mrs. Eugene L. Stone arrived in the city last night from Woodsville, N. H., where she has been visiting relatives for several days, and will spend a few days in this city before returning to her home in Laconia, N. H.

Cobb Hill grange will hold its fourth annual fair Thursday and Friday evenings, Nov. 16 and 17. A good program each evening at 8 o'clock. Admission, 10c; children under 12, 5c. Dancing from 9 until 12:30. Geddes' orchestra.

H. M. Farnham's 64th combination sale of horses and other property yesterday was attended by a big crowd. Forty horses and mules went through the ring aside from carriages, harnesses, blankets, whips and some household furniture. Prices were just about the same as usual at this time of the year. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

The second of a series of popular entertainments arranged by the directors of the Woman's club will take place next Tuesday evening in Howland hall. The Forrester Lyceum quartet of Elmira, N. Y., has for its personnel Miss Johnson, mezzo-soprano, Miss Hazlett, violinist, Miss Phillips, reader, and Mr. Keenan, baritone. They will give a program of popular numbers which has given pleasure to many audiences. The public is invited and the tickets are 25c to all.

The funeral of Stephen Aja, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Aja of 27 Berlin street, who was run over and killed by a train on the Berlin street crossing Wednesday afternoon, was held at the house Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. B. G. Lipsky, pastor of the Heddin Methodist church, officiated at the service and there was a large gathering of friends and relatives of the bereaved family from the Spanish colony.

A number who live in Barre town and Montpelier were present for the obsequies. There was a large floral tribute. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street.

To-day is a gap in the football schedules of Barre's preparatory school eleven, as neither Spaulding nor Goddard has an entry for this afternoon. Unless the seminary management is successful in negotiating two games with the second team at the University of Vermont, the warriors on the hill-top are to put away their tops for the season.

Spaulding is scheduled to play St. Albans high in the Railroad city next Saturday and after that the high school athletes will turn their attention to basketball. Interest hereabout in matters pertaining to football centers for the time-being around the Norwich-Vermont game at Northfield this afternoon. Barre will send a sizeable delegation to Northfield for the game.

Hunters hereabout are making ready for the open season for deer by cleaning their firearms and preparing in some instances, to pass at least a week in the woods. The coming week will witness a considerable exodus of deer seekers, several of whom have made reservations in hunting camps along the central ridge of the Green mountains. The season opens at sunrise Wednesday, Nov. 15 and continues to the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 6, Sundays excepted. Only one deer may be taken by a hunter and no deer with horns less than three inches in length may be killed. When a hunter kills a deer the law says that he must immediately report the killing to the nearest game warden and be ready to exhibit the animal's head. Local hunters may report to Charles Keith, a deputy game warden, or to City Clerk James Mackay, or to any authorized game warden. Town Clerk W. H. Miles and Deputy Sheriff Dennis Donahue will receive reports in Barre town.

MUNSING-WEAR

and You'll Be Comfortable This Winter

Many folks seem to have the idea that Munsingwear is high priced.

The fine quality and careful workmanship in Munsingwear undoubtedly give that impression.

When they find out the price of the particular Munsingwear style and fabric that they like best, they are usually surprised—and delighted.

They are delighted again when they put on their Munsingwear—it fits so perfectly, feels so comfortable.

Again they are surprised when the Munsingwear comes back from the wash—as perfect-fitting as ever.

The climax to their Munsingwear experience comes when they discover how long it wears.

For any man, woman or child—tall, thin, short or stout—there's a perfect-fitting Munsingwear garment in any style, fabric or weight desired.

These Munsingwear features explain why there are now 10,000,000 Munsingwear garments sold annually.
